NCC – Local Highway Improvements

Any Other Business

Cllr.G.Brett-Reynolds asked if the Parish Council would consider donating towards the cost of a Difibrillator, taking into consideration that most Parish Councils now have one in the case of an emergency and the fact that the Ambulance Service is some distance away. The Parish Council agreed to donate £250 and Cllr. Brett-Reynolds said that he would now speak to other prospective donators and also arrange a meeting to ask if a member (or members) of the Wighton community would be prepared to take on being a First Responder and to arrange training.

Next Meeting

Monday 13th November 2017.

There being no further business, the meeting closed at 8.10pm.
